

Company profile

CPB SOFTWARE AG is a successful group of companies with subsidiaries in Austria and Germany.

Its more than 200 employees are devoted to the development of high-quality software products for banks and public authorities, the technical operation of these applications in professional data centres, and the execution of business processes (from master data management to complete customer management) on behalf of clients. Business-as-a-service solutions give companies the freedom to fully focus on their core business areas.

Professional expertise, an incomparable commitment to the quality of our services, a high level of innovation, and many years of experience form the basis for the many efficiently completed projects and what are now nearly 1,000 highly satisfied customers from all across Europe.

www.cpb-software.com